

Lessons from Buffett's 50 Years at Berkshire-Hathaway

Charles Rotblut, CFA
AAIJ Journal Editor

I want to personally invite you to our 2015 Investor Conference, which will be held this November in Las Vegas. This conference regularly sells out. If you can attend, you will be treated to many great presentations. Among the speakers at this year's conference are Jack Ablin of BMO, Larry Swedroe of the Bam Alliance and Christine Benz of Morningstar. I hope to see you there!

Warren Buffett's annual letter to Berkshire-Hathaway (BRK.B) shareholders is on my must-read list, and I suggest adding it to yours as well. The letter always provides investing insights on Buffett's folksy but outspoken manner. This year's letter included special commentary from both Buffett and his partner Charlie Munger.

Read more »