

Placing Trades for New Portfolio Additions

Dividend Investing

This week the markets responded negatively to the People's Bank of China devaluing the yuan by roughly 2% on Tuesday, causing the currency to fall to a four-year low on Wednesday. The currency devaluation caused investors to express concern regarding the health of the global economy.

Read more »