

The AAI Portfolios

I am often asked about our model portfolios. Specifically, what are the differences among them and how does an investor go about following them? I'll provide a brief overview in this week's newsletter.

AAII developed a number of model portfolios to educate our members on how to construct and manage stock and mutual fund portfolios. We currently operate four model portfolios: the Model Shadow Stock Portfolio, the Model Fund Portfolio, the Stock Superstars Report and AAI Dividend Investing. All of the AAI portfolios are tracked with real-money investments made through a discount brokerage firm. The performance we report is net of all transaction costs.
