

Upcoming Chapter Meeting: AAI Baton Rouge

Date: Saturday, December 7, 2013

Topic: What Does Modern Portfolio Theory Look Like Today?

Speaker: Jason DiNozzi, Managing Director, InterGlobal Asset Management, LLC

Modern portfolio theory (MPT) comes with a powerful set of tools that can help take the emotional “roller coaster effect” out of investing and is the best way to achieve long-term capital growth with volatility reduction. Diversification is one of the most misunderstood concepts in investing today; learn how to be truly diversified and see the powerful results you can achieve. Jason DiNozzi will show you how new technologies allow MPT to be implemented better than it ever has before and how you can finally take the guesswork out of your investment future.
