

Upcoming Chapter Meeting: AAI Orange County

Date: Saturday, June 1, 2013

Topic: Exploiting Market Cycles: The Key to Successful Investing

Speaker: Stan Harley, Editor and Publisher, Harley Market Letter/Harley Capital Management

Stan's technical expertise encompasses market cycles: their mathematical derivation, real-time tracking and exploitation for investment and trading. He will present the basics of the Fibonacci numbers and will demonstrate that cycles have their root derivation grounded in Fibonacci numerology. He will provide a comprehensive discussion and analysis of the key cycles in the stock, bond and precious metals markets, as well as home prices and unemployment.
