

Upcoming Chapter Meeting: AAI Research Triangle

Date: Saturday, September 14, 2013

Topic: Value Stocks Are Not Always Undervalued Stocks

Speaker: Vahan Janjigian, Chief Investment Officer, Greenwich Wealth Management, LLC

Vahan Janjigian will dispel some of the long-held investment myths about diversification and risk, undervalued stocks versus value stocks and growth stocks always being expensive. In addition, he will discuss the importance of earnings as a guide and the rationale behind choosing exchange-traded funds (ETFs). He will also name specific stocks that currently look cheap.
