

Upcoming Chapter Meeting: AAI Research Triangle

Date: Saturday, December 7, 2013

Topic: Christmas Party, What Your Broker Will Never Tell You

Speaker: Jackson Breaks, Member, Governors Club Speakers Resource

The average investor stands little chance of beating market averages in the rapidly changing world of options, computer-generated trading and instant information. Some of the advice we read or watch on investment programs may be bad for our financial health if followed blindly. There is plenty of room for different opinions when it comes to managing one's financial future. This straightforward and candid presentation will discuss some simple, time-tested approaches and decision rules for your consideration.
