Date: Thursday, December 6, 2012

Topic: Planning For Income and Estate Tax For 2012 and Beyond: Is It Possible?

Speaker: Todd J. Koch, CPA, MBT, CFP, Partner, John A. Knutson & Co., PLLP

There was a time when major income tax and estate tax changes happened infrequently. Now they have been happening with greater frequency, which makes planning even more important and more difficult. This presentation is designed to give you a brief history of these taxes to help you plan for what should be done now for the potential changes yet this year, changes already enacted for next year and potential changes on the horizon.
