

Upcoming Chapter Meeting: AAI Baltimore

Date: Saturday, October 12, 2013

Topic: Insights From my 40-Year Journey Toward Profitable Investing

Speaker: Eric D. Wish, Ph.D., Director of Center for Substance Abuse Research, University of Maryland

Eric Wish will draw upon the materials he uses to teach technical analysis to honors students at the University of Maryland. The presentation will span such areas as the useful information that he has gleaned and adapted from his published gurus, his strategies using TC2000 and IBD to time the market and minimize risk, and his development of the Wishing Wealth General Market Index (GMI).
