Topic: Invest Using the Strategies of Wall Street Legends: Learn to Leverage the Proven Stock Selection Methodologies of Investing Greats

Speaker: John Reese, Founder and CEO, Validea.com and Validea Capital Management

There are a handful of legendary investors whose performance and stock-picking ability are unprecedented. Peter Lynch, Warren Buffett, David Dreman, John Neff and James O'Shaughnessy are just a few of them. The quantitative strategies developed by these Wall Street gurus can still produce long-term market outperformance. John Reese, CEO of Validea.com and Validea Capital Management, will discuss multiple guru strategies, the benefits of removing emotion from the investment decision-making process, how combining strategies can lower risk and maximize returns and other methods using proven stock-picking strategies from history's most successful investors.
